

Regular Bellingham Friends Meeting Activities and How to Learn More About Them

Bellingham Friends Meeting gathers each Sunday for unprogrammed worship beginning at 10 am, normally at Explorations Academy in the Creekside Building, 1701 Ellis Street (between State and Ohio Streets) in Bellingham. The worship hour is followed by time for sharing Joys and Concerns, introductions, and announcements, and then usually by socializing over tea, coffee, and snacks or (on most first Sundays) a potluck lunch. Most weeks there is also a Second Hour activity: Meeting for Worship for Business on most second Sundays, and some kind of educational and/or discussion activity otherwise. We regularly meet elsewhere the first Sunday in August (an outdoor meeting in a park, followed by a potluck picnic) and, in some years, on the Sunday during our Annual Meeting Retreat. Location changes are publicized well in advance through the communication channels listed below (see II).

I. OTHER REGULAR ACTIVITIES:

1. Mid-week evening worship is hosted on most second and fourth Wednesdays by Mary Ann Percy (858-361-4269 or earthling27@gmail.com) beginning at 7 pm. An hour of open worship is followed by worship-sharing or some other sharing activity as the Friends then present may decide. Contact Mary Ann for location and directions.
2. Our Spirit Group meets monthly on a weekday evening, usually a Thursday, for some free-wheeling discussion typically using a short reading as a jumping-off point. For details and/or to join the list to receive email notices of readings and the next discussion session, contact Larry Thompson (360-961-8326 or Lathompson47@gmail.com).
3. Our monthly Book Group meets on a weekday evening, currently the third Tuesday of the month, for discussion of a book selected by the group and usually available to borrow. For details and/or to join the list to receive email notices of books and meeting locations, contact Susan Richardson (360-733-5477 or boghill@earthlink.net).

II. SOURCES OF INFORMATION ABOUT BELLINGHAM FRIENDS MEETING AND ABOUT QUAKERISM:

1. Our bimonthly newsletter is called Metamorphosis. To receive it, you can complete a Welcome Card, checking on the back to receive the newsletter, and leave it in the envelope. Or, you can directly contact the editor and distributor of Metamorphosis, Betty McMahon (360-734-0244 or bettysmokey@hotmail.com), specifying whether you want to receive it postally or electronically.
2. To receive a weekly (Wednesday morning) summary of Meeting-related information and announcements by email (the “BFM E-news”), contact Judy Hopkinson (360-920-1728 or jd.hopkinson@gmail.com). This can also be requested on the back of the Welcome Card. The E-news also contains announcements about events in the non-Quaker local community and in the wider Quaker community (e.g., FCNL or FGC) that may be of interest to Bellingham Friends.
3. Our Meeting website is at bellinghamfriends.org. Most of the website, including the events calendar, is public. To request access to the private portions of the website, contact Webmaster John Hatten (360-671-7102 or quaker@kulshan.net) to get a password set up for you.
4. Our Facebook page is at www.facebook.com/groups/BellinghamQuakers/.
5. We have a group list-serve. You may sign up to receive emails as they’re posted, or as a daily or weekly digest. The more Friends that participate, the more useful it becomes. Just click here: <https://groups.yahoo.com/neo/groups/BellinghamQuakers/info> . Please contact Allen Stockbridge by email (cleanairguy@gmail.com) if you have any trouble connecting to either the Facebook page (see II-4. above) or to the Yahoo list-serve group.
6. To receive committee reports and the agenda in advance for our monthly (usually 2nd Sunday) Meeting for Worship for Business, and minutes afterwards, contact Judy Hopkinson (see II-2. above). This is a separate list.

7. To receive Bellingham Friends Meeting Directory updates, including the current whole Meeting Directory, by email, contact Don Goldstein (360-671-1395 or dnx6309@gmail.com). This emailing list consists of all who are listed themselves in our Meeting Directory with an email address, which status you can request at any time if you expect to attend at least a few times per year. You can also request this on the back of the Welcome Card.

8. You can also pick up a copy of the Bellingham Friends Meeting Directory in printed form. It's produced during April each year, and copies are available most weeks at Meeting from the literature rack on the greeting table behind the donations box. The 2016-2017 Directory has a pink cover. (If you cannot find a printed copy, see II-7. above.)

9. Other inquiries concerning Bellingham Friends Meeting can be sent by email to info@bellinghamfriends.org, or you may telephone (leaving a message if needed) 360-671-1395.

10. Our Meeting maintains a library of books, pamphlets, and some periodicals related to Quakerism, Quaker history, Quakers concerns and action in the world, and related topics. There is a marked basket containing several items of particular usefulness to those new to our faith. The library is located in the northeast corner of the East Classroom at Explorations Academy (the room used by our children's program), and check-out is self-service. Contact our librarian, Rachel Van Boven (415-828-2978 or rachelannevb@gmail.com) for further details.

NOTE: The individuals listed above as Contact People for the various information sources are subject to change, particularly so during spring each year. This document will be updated as needed to reflect such changes, or the addition of any new activities or information sources.
